A Prayer for the Diocese of Toronto's Discernment of a New Coadjutor Bishop

Almighty and All-Present God, who delights in those who earnestly seek your will, grant to your Church the riches of wisdom and discernment, that for such a time as this, a servant-leader may be chosen who reflects the character and wisdom of Jesus Christ. May this new bishop be strengthened through the encouragement and power of the Holy Spirit, as they labour for renewal, strive for unity, and seek those isolated and far from God; we pray all these things through the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

As of April 26, 2018 the Nominees for the election of a Coadjutor Bishop in the Diocese of Toronto are:

The Rt. Rev. Riscylla Shaw

The Rt. Rev. Kevin Robertson

The Rt. Rev. Victoria Matthews

The Rev. Canon David Harrison

The Very Rev. Andrew Asbil

The Rt. Rev. Jennifer Andison

Biographical information on each of the Nominees may be found in the Convening Circular, which is available on the Diocesan Website at www.toronto.anglican.ca under "2018 Electoral Synod."
