

Director of Music Ministries

Trinity Anglican Church, Aurora, in the Diocese of Toronto is seeking a Director of Music Ministries to help us fulfill our mission to connect spiritual journeys.... Our ideal candidate is an excellent musician and desires to see people spiritually grow. He/she will have experience in traditional church forms while embracing newer, contemporary Christian music. The ability to play the organ and piano, and skills in leading and teaching choral and instrumental music is mandatory.

Qualifications include a minimum of three years of choral, organ and music leadership experience in the Anglican Church of Canada or in an equivalent relevant setting. A flexible approach to enable adaptation to changing ministry needs and able to serve a theologically progressive community. Must possess strong communication skills and the ability to relate well with volunteers and staff.

The Director of Music Ministries position is a 20 hour per week position; with pension, as well as benefits subsidized on a sliding scale. Hours may be flexible and will be determined in consultation with the Incumbent.
