

Lay Pastoral Associate (Part-Time) Wanted Come Join Our Amazing Team & Community!

The Parish of St Margaret New Toronto (Anglican) is a vibrant and growing Christian community, rich with diversity and overflowing with life. We are becoming a community hub for essential service and care for street-involved, homeless and precariously housed friends in South Etobicoke.

Reporting to the Priest and working in collaboration with our team and local agencies, the lay pastoral associate will provide intentional care to our street-involved, homeless and precariously housed community members. This care should be rooted in love, compassion, justice and the teachings of Jesus.

Working in collaboration with our team, the successful candidate will provide pastoral care; plan services, preach and, facilitate accompaniment to appointments; coordinate Sunday meals & drop-in, providing hygiene and harm reduction support and liaison with local agencies.

If you are able to see, think, speak and act intersectionally with lived experience that grounds you, and have experience with crisis intervention, de-escalation, harm reduction, plus a sense of humor and familiarity working with street-involved, homeless and precariously housed population, please apply.

Send a cover letter, a brief statement of faith, three (3) references, and a resume to stmargaretnewtoronto@toronto.anglican.ca. The associate will work 12 hours per week, and the pay is open to negotiation up to our limit. The deadline to apply is Wednesday, January 31, 2024. For the job description, please contact: stmargaretnewtoronto@toronto.anglican.ca

The successful candidate must have a vibrant faith in Jesus, be able to pass a vulnerable sector police check and be eligible to work in Canada.

As a church, we are called to strive for justice and inclusion; we welcome and encourage applications from equity deserving groups to join our team. We thank all applicants for their interest. However, only those selected for interviews will be contacted.
